

TEDDY MAY BE SELECTED

As Commander-in-Chief of the Spanish War Veterans—Made Two Addresses in Denver Today.

(Herald Special.)
Denver, Colo., Aug. 29.—With the entire city dressed in patriotic attire and with the strains of martial music on every hand, Denver today gave an enthusiastic welcome to Colonel Theodore Roosevelt and to thousands of other visitors to the seventh annual national encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans. The greeting to the old colonel of the Rough Riders was as noisy as human voices, steam whistles and guns could make it and as cordial in words as in other manifestations of patriotic joy.

Seldom in her history has Denver entertained so large a crowd. The city's ordinary population was swelled by thousands of visitors from all parts of Colorado and by the hundreds of delegates from all over the country to the convention of the Spanish war veterans. Many distinguished guests were present in addition to the ex-president of the United States. Included among them were General J. Franklin Bell, General Frederick Funston and Colonel Wm. J. Bryan.

A military escort was in waiting at the union station to receive Colonel Roosevelt on his arrival in the city at 10:40 this morning. Colonel Edward J. Gihon of Massachusetts, commander-in-chief of the Spanish war veterans, and Mayor Robert W. Speer and the members of the reception committee appointed by him greeted the ex-president and his party when they alighted from their special train, accompanied by Governor Shafroth and staff.

The procession moved up Seventeenth street, while the troops saluted and the band played "Hail Columbia." Following the carriage in which Colonel Roosevelt, Governor Shafroth and Mayor Speer rode came other carriages containing noted guests. These were followed by the Spanish war veterans, regular troops from Fort Logan, the Colorado National Guard, the High School Cadets, Grand army veterans and numerous other military and semi-military organizations. At the capitol the procession was reviewed by Colonel Roosevelt, Governor Shafroth and other notables.

Colonel Roosevelt delivered two speeches during the afternoon. The first was made at the Auditorium under the auspices of the Colorado Live Stock Association and the second was delivered in the same place later in the day to the Spanish war veterans. One of the features of the day's program which the ex-president enjoyed most was the cowboy luncheon at Overland Park, which he attended as the guest of the Denver Press Club.

During the day Colonel Roosevelt displayed a lively interest in the proceedings of the Spanish war veterans' convention and frequently gave hearty manifestations of his pleasure at renewing acquaintance with many of his old comrades of the Cuban campaign.

The parade of the veterans and the formal opening ceremonies occupied virtually the entire day, so that the regular business of the convention will not be taken up until tomorrow morning. Much discussion is heard among the delegates regarding the choice of a commander-in-chief to succeed Colonel Gihon, whose term of office expires with the present convention. It is probable that Colonel Roosevelt's name will be presented to the convention, notwithstanding a number of other prominent veterans are mentioned for the honor. Oklahoma City, Louisville, Atlantic City and Rochester are engaged in a spirited contest for the next encampment.

PROGRESSIVES CONTROL

Republican Politics of Kansas and Platform Will Be In Keeping With Their Views.

(Herald Special.)
Topeka, Kas., Aug. 29.—The republican state, congressional and legislative nominees, members of the state committee and other republican party leaders in Kansas are rounding up in Topeka in readiness for the party council tomorrow which will promulgate a platform upon which Governor Stubbs and other candidates nominated at the recent primaries will conduct their campaign this fall. There has been some talk of an attempt to be made by the standpatters to gain control of the council, but present indications are that the progressives will have things well in hand.

It is predicted that the platform will follow in national matters very closely along the lines of the Iowa platform. It will declare that the republican party of Kansas feels confident to judge of the quality of the republicanism of its senators and representatives in congress. President Taft, it is expected, will be endorsed for the progressive legislation he favored, while the Payne-Aldrich tariff measure will come in for condemnation as unqualified as the praise that will be bestowed upon Senator Brister and the insurgent representatives who opposed it.

First State Bank, was smashed and scattered along the sidewalk for a distance of fifty feet.

C. A. Broadbent, who was not far away at the time, was cut in the left ear by a flying piece of glass, while a piece of iron made a painful wound in his back. Jerry Matejka was cut on one ear with glass, while there were numerous fine cuts all over the face by small fragments of glass. Zack Johnston, colored, received a cut in the left arm. The roaster was sitting on the sidewalk in front of the confectionery stand, and there were peanuts, goobers, ground peas and pindars, as well as popcorn, scattered in every direction. Luckily there was no one standing near it at the time.

Otto Mimann, who was two miles from town at the time, heard the report, and thought a gasoline tank had exploded. Some thought the State Bank had been dynamited.
